

Place Value Through Thousandths

Write the number shown in the place-value chart in word form.

Step 1: Write the word name for the numbers to the left of or before the decimal point. forty	Step 2: Write and and the word name for the numbers to the right of the decimal point. forty and three hundred eighteen	Step 3: Write the place value name of the final digit after the decimal point. forty and three hundred eighteen thousandths
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Write six and thirty-five thousandths in standard form.

Step 1: Write the digits that come before and. Replace and with a decimal point. 6.	Step 2: Look at the word name. If necessary, insert zeros after the decimal so that the last digit is in the correct place. For this number, the last digit must be in the thousandths place. 6.035
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Write each in standard form.

1. sixteen hundredths

2. seven and six tenths

3. fifty-seven thousandths

Write each decimal in word form.

4. 9.3

5. 0.42

6. 0.092
